Loudon County Mayor Telecommuting Policy

In the event of an emergency such as a weather disaster or pandemic, Loudon County Government may allow or require certain employees to temporarily work remotely from home for all or part of their workweek. The purpose of this arrangement is to ensure government continuity and employee safety. Telecommuting may be appropriate for some employees but not for others. Telecommuting is not an entitlement, it is not a county wide benefit, and it in no way changes the terms and conditions of employment with Loudon County Government.

Department heads will assess the needs and requirements of his or her respective department, and request approval of the County Mayor prior to initiating a temporary telecommuting arrangement with any employee.

The department head and employee will discuss the job responsibilities and determine if the job is appropriate for a telecommuting arrangement. Loudon County Government will determine the equipment needs for each employee on a case-by-case basis. Equipment supplied by Loudon County is to be used for county business purposes only. The employee will establish an appropriate work environment within his or her home for work purposes. Loudon County Government will not be responsible for costs associated with the setup of the employee's home office, such as remodeling, furniture or lighting, nor for repairs or modification to the home office space.

Employees who are temporarily working from home will review and adhere to all requirements of Loudon County Policy and Procedure Handbook. A telecommuting arrangement does not negate nor replace the Policy and Procedure Handbook. Consistent with the County's expectations of information security for employees working at the office, telecommuting employees will be expected to ensure the protection of County, vendor, and employee information accessible from their home office.

Employees should not assume any specified period of time for emergency telework arrangements, and Loudon County Government may require employees to return to regular, in-office work at any time.

EXHIBIT 1

Telecommuting Policy

Eligibility

- Employee suitability: The department head and employee will assess the needs and work habits of the employee, compared to traits customarily recognized as appropriate for successful telecommuters.
- Job responsibilities: The department head and employee will discuss the job responsibilities and determine if the job is appropriate for a telecommuting arrangement.
- Equipment needs and scheduling: The department head and employee will review equipment needs as well as an appropriate schedule.
- Tax and other legal implications: The employee must determine any tax or legal implications under IRS, state and local government laws, and/or restrictions of working out of his/her home. Responsibility for fulfilling all obligations in this area rests solely with the employee.

If the department head and employee agree, and the County Mayor approves, this policy will be signed by all parties, and a two-week trial period will commence. If, after the two-week trial period, the telecommuting employee is performing satisfactorily, the work from home arrangement will continue for the duration of the project or required time period. If, after the two-week trial period, the telecommuting employee is not performing satisfactorily, the employee will return to an in-office work environment if circumstances that initiated the telecommuting arrangement permit. Since a telecommuting employee is still required to adhere to all aspects of the Loudon County Employee Policy and Procedure Handbook, failure to do so could result in discipline, up to and including termination.

Availability

Employees who are permitted to telecommute must be available for phone consultations, email responses, or teleconferences during his or her regularly scheduled workday. Additionally, employees working from home must be available to report to the office within one hour if required by the department head or County Mayor.

Compensation and Work Hours

The employee's compensation, benefits, work status, and work responsibilities will not change due to participation in a teleworking program. The amount of time the employee is expected to work per day or pay period will not change as a result of participation in the teleworking program.

Telecommuting employees who are not exempt from the overtime requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act will be required to accurately record all hours worked. Hours worked in excess of those scheduled per day and per workweek require the advance approval of the telecommuter's supervisor. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the immediate termination of the telecommuting agreement.

Equipment

On a case-by-case basis, Loudon County Government will determine the appropriate equipment needs for each telecommuting arrangement. While equipment supplied by the County will be maintained by the County, county equipment that is damaged by the employee must be replaced at the expense of the employee. Equipment supplied by the County is to be used for business purposes only. (See Loudon County Policy and Procedure Handbook.) Upon termination of employment, all County property will be returned to the County.

Loudon County Government will supply the telecommuting employee with appropriate office supplies as deemed necessary.

Security

Consistent with the County’s expectations of information security for employees working at the office, telecommuting employees will be expected to ensure the protection of County, vendor, and employee information accessible from their home office.

Employees are expected to maintain their home workspace in a safe manner, free from safety hazards. Injuries sustained by the employee in a home office location and in conjunction with his or her regular work duties are normally covered by Loudon County Government’s workers’ compensation policy. Telecommuting employees are responsible for notifying the employer of such injuries as soon as practical. The employee is liable for any injuries sustained by visitors to his or her home worksite.

Execution

Signatures of the County Mayor, Department Head, and employee below indicate agreement with the foregoing. Employees’ employment remains “at will” pursuant to the Loudon County Policy and Procedures Handbook.

Reason for this Telecommuting Arrangement: _____

Policy Revision

Revisions to this policy will require re-execution by all parties.
