LOUDON COUNTY COMMISSION

RESOLUTION OF THE LEGISLATIVE BODY OF LOUDON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, PRAISING AND CONGRATULATING THE 1983 GREENBACK HIGH SCHOOL "LADY CHEROKEES" BASKETBALL TEAM.

WHEREAS, The Greenback High School "Lady Cherokees" Basketball Team during the basketball season of 1983 won eleven games and lost one with a twenty-four to eleven overall record, the "Cherokees" showing their colors by their fearless, brave, and courageous teamwork; and

WHEREAS, in the Tennessee Secondary School Association's Single A, District 3-A Tournament, the Greenback High School "Lady Cherokees" Basketball Team were the District League Champions; and

WHEREAS, the "Lady Cherokees" Basketball Team went on to become the Runner-up in Region II; and

WHEREAS, the "Lady Cherokees" Basketball Team went on to win the Sub-State, losing to Richland in the quarter-finals of the State Tournament; and

WHEREAS, the efforts and accomplishments of this basketball team are deserving of recognition for the outstanding record it has made, and the fine tradition it has and hopes to keep going since there was no seniors on this team, and all of the players will be returning next year;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF LOUDON COUNTY in regular session assembled, that congratulations and praise on behalf of the people of Loudon County are rendered to the Greenback High School "Lady Cherokees" Basketball Team and to the coaching staff for an outstanding season in 1983,<sup>84</sup> and for the leadership recognition that has come to the school and to the county because of the accomplishments of this fine basketball team.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this special recognition also goes to the team Head-Coach, Ken Byrd, and to the assistant coach, Kim Bledsoe, and to the family, friends, and fans who have supported this team during the entire season.

R E S O L U T I O N

16-84

WHEREAS, the Loudon County Commission is aware that every effort must be made to aid the taxpayers of the county in every manner possible; and

WHEREAS, the County Commission, recognizing the predicament of the taxpayer, has made every effort to bring relief by seeking other means of raising money and by promoting efficiency and economy in the county government; and

WHEREAS, the County Commission finds itself in the position of having to provide funds for the payment of costs over which it has no control, such as the number of personnel employed in the offices of county officials, the hours they are required to work, and the salaries they are paid; and

WHEREAS, Acts passed by the State Legislature give authority to the Chancellors and Circuit Judges to set the salaries of the clerks in the offices of county officials, determine the number of deputies a county must have, and set the salaries of those deputies; and

WHEREAS, the County Commission must provide funds to pay these higher costs required by state law or, on failure to do so, face contempt of court charges that could result in fines and jail sentences for each commissioner; and

WHEREAS, The County Commission of Loudon County feels that as an elected body of representatives of every district in the county it is in a better position to know what is best for the county and to act according to the wishes of the citizens of said county than are the members of the State Legislature or the Judges or Chancellors, some of whom do not live in the county and have no interest in the county's tax rate;

NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by this, the Loudon County Commission, that the taxpayers of Loudon County be requested to contact their State Senator, Benny Stafford, and their State Representative, Ben Longley, requesting them to use their votes and influence to amend the present law so that the taxpayers of the counties of the State of Tennessee will have more control over the management and operation of their local government through their elected County Commission.

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to Senator Ben Longley and Representative Benny Stafford requesting their attention, support and influence to remedy this situation.

Exhibit C

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of this Resolution be mailed to all other counties of the State of Tennessee, requesting their support in having the present laws amended to allow counties more authority in the operation of their government.

Be It Further Resolved, that this Resolution shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

Adopted this, The 9 day of April, 1984.

LOUDON COUNTY COMMISSION

RESOLUTION NO. 17-84

RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING THE LOUDON COUNTY AIRPORT AUTHORITY

WHEREAS, Loudon County has reached a stage of economic and industrial development wherein it would appear to be desirable and advantageous for existing industry, and an asset to help draw future industrial development, to have a county airport, as well as for commercial and recreational use and enjoyment; and

WHEREAS, the creation and construction of an airport facility is possible in Loudon County with the help of federal grants and loans; and

WHEREAS, the achievement of these goals makes it necessary and desirable to create a Municipal Airport Authority, with all the powers and responsibilities as provided by state law, more specifically TCA 42-3-101 et seq and other applicable statutes:

WITNESSETH

NOW, therefore, be it RESOLVED by the County Commission of Loudon County in regular session assembled as follows:

1. The Loudon County Airport Authority is hereby established, effective this date.

2. The Airport Authority hereby established is authorized to exercise its functions as provided by statute upon the appointment and qualification of the first commissioners, and the issuance of a certificate of incorporation by the Secretary of State.

3. The following five persons are appointed as the first commissioners of the Authority, with staggered terms as indicated, and with each successor commissioner to be appointed for a full term of five years, as follows:

Al Bryant	1 year
Edwin T. Smith	2 years
Randy McGill	3 years
Bart O. Iddins	4 years
Victor C. Pangle, II	5 years

4. The location of the principal office of the proposed corporation initially is Loudon County Industrial Office, Depot Station, Loudon, Tennessee 37774.

5. The said appointed commissioners shall file under oath, according to law, to the Secretary of State of Tennessee, an application requesting the acceptance and filing of said application, and the issuance of a certificate of incorporation, which certificate upon receipt thereof shall be recorded in the Register's Office of Loudon County, Tennessee.

This the 12 day of April, 1984.
